 Each sublevel has a duration of 30 hours.

PLACEMENT TEST

Any new students enrolling in an A1.2 level or above MUST take a placement test. This test aims to accurately assess your level of Spanish within the four aspects of the language:

- Reading and writing comprehension: a writing exercise (online).
- Listening and oral assessment: conversation with a teacher (over the phone).

To request the placement test please email us at classprogram@cervantes.org

SPANISH COURSES

Classes are taught in Spanish from day one in every level to encourage our students to communicate in Spanish from the very first moment they start the course.

TEACHERS

Instituto Cervantes' teachers are highly qualified native Spanish speakers from Spain and Latin America. Our teachers are experienced in different fields and regularly engage in workshops to stay up to date on the latest methods and technologies of teaching Spanish as a foreign language.

Our teachers' methodology is interactive and dynamic and seeks to develop communications skills using grammar and cultural content.

CERTIFICATES

CERTIFICATION OF THE SPANISH LANGUAGE

Instituto Cervantes is internationally leading in the evaluation of knowledge of our language and its certification and the Spanish language teaching and Spanish teacher training.

At its facilities, Instituto Cervantes offers its students and all those interested the opportunity to officially certify their knowledge of the Spanish language.

Our institution carries out official examinations to certify the knowledge of the Spanish language with the highest international prestige: DELE Diplomas of Spanish and the Certificate of the International Service for Spanish Language Assessment SIELE.

DELE DIPLOMAS OF SPANISH

DELE Diplomas of Spanish are certifications granted by Instituto Cervantes on behalf of the Ministry of Education and Professional Development of Spain.

During Fall season there are two DELE dates:

October

Friday 18: Levels A2, B1, B2
Register by September 4

November

Friday 22: Levels A1 for students and A2/B1 for students
Saturday 23: Levels A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, C2

SIELE

SIELE is the International Assessment Service for the Spanish Language, promoted by Instituto Cervantes, the National Autonomous University of Mexico, the University of Salamanca and the University of Buenos Aires.

SIELE is digital, flexible, agile, international and of a high quality. You can take the entire exam or independent modalities.

S1 Reading comprehension + Listening comprehension

S2 Reading comprehension + Written expression and interaction

S3 Listening comprehension + Oral expression and interaction

S4 Oral expression and interaction test

S5 Written expression and interaction + Oral expression and interaction

You may make an appointment with their preferred examination center with the possibilities offered by the selected center <https://siele.org/en/home>. Besides, you can decide to take the exam at a SIELE center or remote. In this case, you can take it on your own computer and the Examination Center supervises them online and in real time and you have to contact the Examination Center to request for a date.

POLICIES

Class size

The minimum is 6 students, and the maximum is 12. In special circumstances and depending on the needs of the course, Instituto Cervantes reserves the right to adapt the size of the class. We encourage students to register early or we may not be able to accommodate them at the time that best fits their schedule.

Class modality

Instituto Cervantes New York reserves the right to link an in person and online classes to form a hybrid course if necessary. Students will attend the modality in which they registered.

Teachers and Class Groups

Teachers are not assigned to their classes until the week prior to the beginning of each session. Instituto Cervantes reserves the right to reassign teachers after a course has started.

Students cannot choose the teacher for their course. If a class is divided into two groups, we cannot guarantee that students will continue in a class with their former classmates.

Attendance and Transfers

Attendance is the student's responsibility. It is recommended that students contact their teacher for homework in the case of an absence. Refunds will not be processed for any absences.

Once classes have started, students may transfer or request a refund ($75 cancellation fee) before the second class of the course.

Payment

Full payment must be received prior to the first class. Payments can be made online or over the phone, by debit, or credit card (Instituto Cervantes' preferred method of payment is debit or credit card).

Refunds

To request a refund, please send a written request by email to classprogram@cervantes.org before the second class. All refunds have a cancellation fee of $75 before the second class, and $200 before the third class. Refunds are not offered for private lessons. Teachers' workshops are also non-refundable.

Cancellations

Instituto Cervantes reserves the right to cancel courses and workshops. Courses are cancelled due to insufficient enrollment (less than 6 students registered). If your course is cancelled, you will be notified and given the option to transfer to another class or to receive a full refund.

If the student is transferred to a course with higher registration fees, the student must pay the price difference. If the course is less expensive than the original course, the student will receive a refund for the price difference.
